

University of Arizona Latin American Studies

Resources for Educators

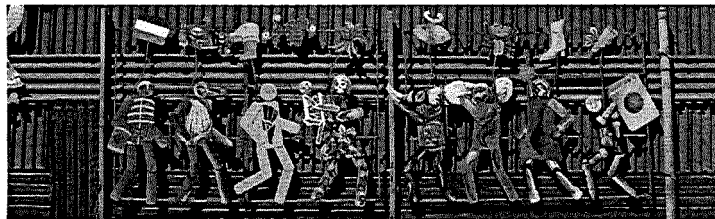

The Center for Latin American Studies (CLAS) at the University of Arizona offers a variety of resources for K-12 educators including:

- Online Curriculum Units
- Special Events And Workshops For Professional Development
- Resource Lending Library: films and curriculum resources
- Speakers Bureau: Graduate students available to visit your classroom

For more information please visit our website at clas.arizona.edu/outreach or contact Program Coordinator, Clea Conlin (520) 626-0189 or cconlin@email.arizona.edu.

The CLAS Outreach Program is supported by a grant from the U.S. Department of Education, Title VI.

University of Arizona Latin American Studies

Resources for Educators

The Center for Latin American Studies (CLAS) at the University of Arizona offers a variety of resources for K-12 educators including:

- Online Curriculum Units
- Special Events And Workshops For Professional Development
- Resource Lending Library: films and curriculum resources
- Speakers Bureau: Graduate students available to visit your classroom

For more information please visit our website at clas.arizona.edu/outreach or contact Program Coordinator, Clea Conlin (520) 626-0189 or cconlin@email.arizona.edu.

The CLAS Outreach Program is supported by a grant from the U.S. Department of Education, Title VI.

