

28
APRIL | 9 am
Pacific
Time

Zoom Session

Registration:
<https://bit.ly/378yf4R>

Now accepting applications for Fall 2022
journalism.arizona.edu/bilingual

The Bilingual Journalism M.A. Presents:

Centro Latinoamericano de Investigación Periodística

María Teresa Ronderos

Colombian bilingual journalist
CLIP Co-Founder

María Teresa Ronderos is a Colombian journalist, director and co-founder of the Latin American Center for Investigative Journalism (CLIP), which leads cross-border collaborative investigations that seek to hold power to account. She is a regular columnist for the daily El Espectador and teaches workshops for journalists with the Fundación Gabo, where she also sits on the Board. For almost five years she headed the Independent Journalism Program of the Open Society Foundations, which supports more than 130 media and freedom of expression organizations around the world. For 14 years she held different editorial positions at Semana, the leading Colombia news magazine. She has been a digital non-profit media entrepreneur, involved in the creation of LaNota.com, Votebien.com and, from 2008-2014, of VerdadAbierta.com, specializing in investigating war and peace in her native country.

Two New Dual Degrees:

Dual M.A. Bilingual Journalism and Latin American Studies
journalism.arizona.edu/dual-ma-bilingual-journalism-latin-american-studies

Dual M.A. Bilingual Journalism and Studies of Global Media
journalism.arizona.edu/dual-ma-bilingual-journalismstudies-global-media