

FALL 2022 CHARLAS CON CAFÉ

The Brazilian 2022 Presidential Election: History, Politics, and Crisis

Friday, Sep. 23 , 1-2 pm (AZ Time)

with Arthur Ituassu (Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro)

Marshall Building, Suite 280

This talk will discuss the Brazilian 2022 electoral context from three theoretical perspectives. First, from a historical approach, it will examine the continuities and discontinuities of the moment concerning other electoral contexts in Brazil's recent democratic past. Second, it will analyze the political context around the presidential election, scheduled for October 2, 2022. And third, it will address the idea of a crisis of democracy in Brazil in a comparative approach with Latin American and other global contexts. Ultimately, the aim is to offer a general contextualization that may inform debates about the Brazilian political and democratic future.

Arthur Ituassu is an Associate Professor of Political Communication at the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro (PUC-Rio). A Dr. in International Relations (IRI). Associate Researcher at the Brazilian National Institute of Science and Technology for Digital Democracy (INCT-DD). Former Vice-President (2015-2017) and President (2017-2019) of the Brazilian Association of Researchers in Communication and Politics (COMPOLÍTICA).

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL & BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

Latin American Studies